Terms and conditions

General

- Enrolment for a tuition or revision session does not constitute enrolment for the examination itself.
- Payment: Fees must be paid in full upon enrolment and are non-refundable. A booking can only be confirmed when payment is received.
- The copyright of all course materials remains that of The College of Law. Such materials may not be produced either in whole or in part, by any method whatsoever, without prior permission having been given in writing by The College of Law. Once supplied, course materials become the personal property of the student to whom they are issued and may not be used by any other person.
- The course materials are reviewed/updated annually and are valid for one year from 1 July and running through to 30 June the next year. If a candidate purchases material before 30 June and then needs to sit/resit after 1 July, they will be required to purchase the updated course material. Any major changes in legislation and/or regulations will be included in a separate update distributed to candidates. It is the responsibility of the candidate to track and monitor minor changes.
- Access to the online revision tool is for six months only, from date of purchase.
- The dates, time and venues of the exam, tuition and revision sessions are provisional. Whilst the College will try to adhere to the published programme, we reserve the right to make changes or to cancel a programme if this becomes necessary. Any changes will be notified in advance.
- Prices are correct at time of going to press - August 2009. Prices are valid for all sittings up until the end of July 2010.
- All places offered on the tuition, revision sessions and Test are subject to availability and demand.
- You will receive written confirmation of your booking. Joining instructions will be forwarded approximately seven days prior to the start of the tuition, revision session or Test.

Early booking

Tuition, revision sessions and Test: Places are limited and early booking is recommended. Once the maximum number of candidates is reached for a particular session, we will not be able to accept any further bookings for that session.

Test entry

- Any legal proceedings, whether in contract or otherwise, arising out of, or in connection with, an application to sit the Test shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England.
- Any contract between you and The College of Law of England and Wales shall be governed by the law of England.
- Any examination paper written by the candidate and/or recordings made at the Head IV (Oral) Test shall be the property of The College of Law of England and Wales and by signing this booking form, you waive any intellectual property right in such.
- The College of Law will discharge its obligations in relation to the provision of any advance information or materials relating to the Test by sending the relevant information or material to the candidate by first class mail/airmail at the address specified by the candidate on their application form under the heading 'Please send study material to:'. No appeal against a decision of the Examination Board will lie on the grounds that the information or material was/were not received by the candidate.
- Applicable law: You will be examined on the law as it is in force on the day of the examination. It is your responsibility to make sure your knowledge and study materials are up-to-date.
- Registration fee: The registration fee of £290 allows you to sit at three sittings.

Cancellation

By the candidate: All fees are non-refundable. If you fail to attend any tuition, revision sessions or Test for which an enrolment has been made, the full fee will be charged.

By the College: In the unlikely event that we have to cancel, an alternative date will be offered, but the College shall incur no further liability.

Deferral

To postpone one or more Heads of the Test, The College of Law must be notified in writing at least 10 working days before the date of the examination.

A partial credit reflecting the difference between the fees paid and the fees due for any Heads taken in that sitting will be carried over against an enrolment by the same candidate for the next Test sitting. The fee to be carried forward will be confirmed in writing. A new application for the next Test to be entered must be submitted, together with the balance of the fee before the Test deadline.

Data protection

The College of Law needs to hold certain personal information about its candidates. Information will be held in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998 and the College's Data Protection Policy. For further details of the Data Protection policy and Data Protection declaration, please visit our website at www.college-of-law.co.uk. Agreement to the processing of personal data is a condition of acceptance onto any course. By enrolling on an examination or tuition course you signify your agreement to this processing.

Acceptance of terms and conditions

Your booking cannot be accepted if you have not signed to accept the above terms and conditions.

I accept the Terms and conditions detailed herein.
